Our Songs and Poems

Ori mi, Ejika, Orunkun, Ika ese

Ori mi, ejika, orunkun, ika ese
(My Head, shoulders, knees, toes)

Ori mi, ejika, orunkun, ika ese
(My Head, shoulders, knees, toes)

Oju, eti, imu, enu
(eyes, ears, nose, mouth)

Ori mi, ejika, orunkun, ika ese
(My Head, shoulders, knees, toes)

A Yoruba song from Nigeria. It is similar to 'Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes in that there are movements that you do when you sing the song such as touching head, shoulders, knees and toes.

Polly put the Kettle On

Polly put the kettle on
Polly put the kettle on
Polly put the kettle on
We'll all have tea

Sukey, take it off again
Sukey, take it off again
Sukey, take it off again
They've all gone away

Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star

Twinkle, twinkle little star
How I wonder what you are
Up above the world so high
Like a diamond in the sky
Twinkle, twinkle little star
How I wonder what you are

Leaves Are Falling

Leaves are falling, Leaves are falling,
One fell on my nose.

Leaves are falling, Leaves are falling,
One fell on my toes.

Leaves are falling, Leaves are falling,
One fell on my head.

Leaves are falling, Leaves are falling.
Yellow, orange, red.

Makaton

We are learning these Makaton signs:

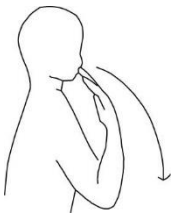

Yes

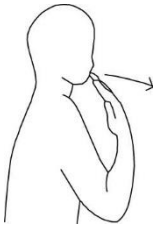

No

Please

Thank you

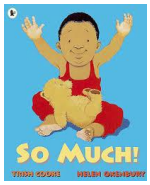

Autumn

At school, we will be observing the signs of Autumn – falling leaves, conkers, acorns and the colours changing from green to red, yellow, orange and brown. Our observations and conversations support children in their paintings and drawings. Children will make patterns and shapes using natural materials like leaves. Go for a walk in the park. What can you see? Maybe collect some leaves and seeds to make pictures and patterns.

Black History Month

To welcome in Black History Month, we will be celebrating our unique selves by drawing and painting our portraits. We will read favourite books such as 'So Much' by Trish Cooke which celebrates family. We will develop the hair dressing role play area. What makes you special? Are you friendly and kind? Also, have a look in a mirror and see if you can draw your own portrait. Bring it into school to show us. Look through photo albums with your family to look at photos of yourself and family to remember special occasions you've celebrated.

Movement

Before we can draw and write using small movements with our hands, we need to use big movements, such as cleaning the windows with soapy sponges, painting the wall with water and decorating brushes, and dancing by waving scarves and ribbons. Why not find a scarf or small piece of material, put on some music and dance with it, showing all your best moves!

Dolly Parton Imagination Library

Get involved in a reading challenge to celebrate the life of Dolly Parton who sought to enhance imagination by providing books to children.
